Rep. Coladipietro Takes Oath of Office

Springfield, IL ... State Representative Franco Coladipietro (R-Bloomington) took the oath of office as the 97th General Assembly got underway today at the University of Illinois, Springfield.

“I always enjoy inauguration day as it reminds me of what an honor and privilege it is to serve as a state representative. It is a great feeling to have so much support from the residents of my district and I look forward to working on issues that are important to all of us,” said Coladipietro.

Rep. Coladipietro will begin his third term and was first sworn into office in 2007.

“I hope that we can put aside political beliefs and work together to positively impact residents of our community and the entire state such as getting control of spending and making Illinois a destination economy to entice the job-creating sector,” Coladipietro.

Rep. Coladipietro’s district includes all of or parts of Addison, Bloomington, Carol Stream, Glen Ellyn, Glendale Heights, Itasca, Lombard, Roselle, Wheaton and Winfield.
